Whitehall, July 8.

THE following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Free Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Corporation of Gallway.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Mayor, Sheriffs, Free Burgeſſes and Commonalty of your Majeſty's ancient, moſt dutiful and loyal Corporation of Gallway, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to preſent our Compliments of Congratulation to your Sacred Majeſty, on the Nuptials of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Royal with his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

It is particularly agreeable to your Majeſty's loyal Subjects of this Corporation, to ſee ſo cloſe an Alliance between your Majeſty and a Prince of the ſame illuſtrious Houſe with your glorious Predeceſſor and Pattern our late King William, whoſe Memory muſt be ever ſacred and dear to us, in not only reſcuing our Religion and our Laws from the violent Hands of Popery and Oppreſſion, but tranſmitting them pure and uncorrupted to all Poſterity, by the eſtabliſhing of them in your Majeſty's Perſon and Royal Progeny; who from a near and natural Example, cannot fail to reign in the Hearts of their Proteſtant Subjects of Ireland.

With Pleaſure we here behold an univerſal Eſteem and Approbation of your Majeſty's moſt prudent and wiſe Meaſures both at Home and Abroad; and though by the Remoteneſs of our Situation from your Majeſty's Perſon, we are deprived of the Honour of approaching your Royal Preſence, yet with the ſtricteſt Sincerity we aſſure your Majeſty, that no Diſtance of Place can alter the Duty and Affection, which, as we are conſcious we ought to pay, we are confident we ſhall always bear to your moſt ſacred Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed our common Seal to be hereunto annexed, the 8th Day of May, 1734.

Berlin, July 10, N. S. On Thurſday laſt the King of Pruſſia, accompanied by Majors General Botenbroke and Waldo, Colonel Deſchau, Captain Hacke his Aide de Camp, and one or two more, ſet out from Potzdam on his Journey for Anſpach, Bareith, the Imperial Camp, &c. Some are of Opinion that his Majeſty is gone directly to the Imperial Camp, and that he will arrive there as to Morrow. An Expreſs which Count Levenwold received on Tueſday Evening laſt, brought, amongſt other Things, the Act of Submiſſion made by the Grandees of Poland in Dantzick; when that Courier left the Muſcovite Camp the Capitulation was not ſettled with the Town, the Ruſſians then inſiſting to put a Garriſon into Dantzick jointly and in equal Numbers with the Saxons, which the Dantzickers abſolutely rejected: But by another Courier which arrived this Afternoon we have an Account, that the ſaid Capitulation was ſigned on the 7th Inſtant, and that the following Stipulations made Part of it. 1. That the Ruſſians ſhall put no Troops into the Town under any Pretence whatſoever. 2. That the ſaid Town ſhall pay the Muſcovites a Million of Crowns in Specie. 3. That the Dantzickers ſhall acknowledge the Elector of Saxony for their King, and put the Saxons, to the Number of 200 only, in Poſſeſſion of the Gate called Oliva. 4. That their Liberties, and all the Rights and Privileges which they enjoyed under former Kings of Poland, ſhall be ſecured to them.

Copenhagen, July 10, N. S. Yeſterday in the Evening their Daniſh Majeſties, with the Margravine, returned in perfect Health to this Place, and lodged at the Palace of Roſenburg. This Afternoon they removed to Friedensbourg, and in all Probability will there paſs the reſt of the Summer.

Hague, July 16, N. S. The States of Holland have this Day diſpoſed of all the Civil and Military vacant Employments in their
